We see that the very young generation is making the Census Bureau folks look like a bunch of mathematicians. The 1950 population figures were figured it would be a "bunch" to the nearest billion.

It is little the kids were saying to their parents. "How did you figure it up to the billion?" "You have to add up the population to 100 million."

How Christian Science Heals "Disease Is Not Incurable" WSW (100 sec.) Sunday 10:15 a. m.

INTRODUCTION: As we begin a new quarter, we begin a series of lessons entitled, "Bible Teachings for a Better World." In this first lesson we see that God has a purpose for Man and the World. He is constantly at work in the accomplishing of His designs.

I. GOD THE CREATOR The creation reveals the glory of God. The Creator must be a Being of infinite wisdom and power. He created it for a purpose and with great deliberation. The final work of creation was man, made in God's own image. The God who created man is deeply concerned with the fate of man in this universe. Sin is made possible through the gift to man of a limited amount of freedom. With freedom goes responsibility. The steadfast love of God follows man even in his sin. God is concerned that His purpose in the creation of man, namely that he might glorify God and enjoy Him forever, shall be accomplished.

II. THE KINGDOM OF GOD—Mark 1:14-15 Jesus hereby fulfills the Servant role as he comes into Galilee proclaiming the coming of the Kingdom of God. This Kingdom is the rule of God. Through Jesus the power of God is revealed in human life. He sets before us the example of a sinless life. The full revelation that came with Jesus culminates in his death and resurrection. To those who repent and believe He becomes the Redeemer.

III. THE LITTLE GOSPEL—John 3:16-17 Here we have the heart of the Gospel which we must seek to have the purpose, power, and love of God fully revealed. Here is God's means for salvation, restoration, and ultimate purpose for mankind.

V. THE NEW HEAVEN AND THE NEW EARTH—Revelation 21:1-5 We live in a very real world; God is at work in this world. He is calling men out of darkness into the glorious light of the Gospel. He has given us His Word upon which we must seek to build our society, to make this world a better place. But the final redemption is not within this world. For the individual there is the hope of a new world, a new heaven, and a new earth, that fade not away, laid up in Heaven for him. For the human race there is knowledge of the finished man and the new heaven and new earth.

THIS WEEK'S SERMONETTE

WITHOUT MONEY

Submitted by F. D. Buchmiller, pastor Seventh Day Adventist Church

Yes, strange as it may seem in this day when MONEY is virtually the god of multitudes, the most valuable thing in life can be had "WITHOUT MONEY."

It may not be possible to secure food, raiment, shelter, education and transportation without money; but that which is more important and more interesting than all these is absolutely free.

Undoubtedly it will be agreed that the salvation of God is the most valuable thing in life. And, though at an infinite cost to God, that salvation has been provided as a free gift to man. This is evident from the words of the Apostle Peter to Simon: "Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money" (Acts 8:20). God regardeth not the rich more than the poor (Job 34:19).

And only in this salvation to be had "without money" it is also true.

WITHOUT PRICE!

There may be those who will readily admit that it is impossible to obtain salvation without money, but who at the same time insist that there is some sort of price to pay for it. To all such, the following Scripture should make plain that salvation is without price: "Being justified FREELY by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 3:24).

"Freely" here means "gratuitously," "without a cause," "for naught." And "grace" means "everything for nothing to one who deserves nothing but judgment." The Lord Jesus Christ paid the price of salvation. He "gave Himself for our sins" (Gal. 1:4). The Son of God "loved me and He paid the price—His precious blood—there remains no price for us to pay."

Most persons have difficulty in believing that salvation is without works. They seem to be satisfied that they cannot purchase salvation any way, but they entertain the thought that they can work for it. Let all such consider the following passages:

"Not of works, lest any man should boast"

"For ye are justified by grace, not by works, lest any man should boast"

"For ye are justified by grace, not by works, lest any man should boast"

"For ye are justified by grace, not by works, lest any man should boast"

"For ye are justified by grace, not by works, lest any man should boast"

"For ye are justified by grace, not by works, lest any man should boast"

"For ye are justified by grace, not by works, lest any man should boast"

"For ye are justified by grace, not by works, lest any man should boast"

"For ye are justified by grace, not by works, lest any man should boast"

"For ye are justified by grace, not by works, lest any man should boast"

"For ye are justified by grace, not by works, lest any man should boast"

"For ye are justified by grace, not by works, lest any man should boast"

"Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on Him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness" (Rom. 4:4-5).

"Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began" (2 Tim. 1:9).

"Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy toward us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost" (Titus 3:5).

"Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law" (Rom. 3:28).

Upon believing the Word of Truth, the Gospel of your salvation, you will receive the Holy Spirit. Possessing Him, you will be able to be zealous of good works" (Titus 2:14), and maintain good works, which "God hath before ordained that we should walk in them" (Eph. 2:10). But do not imagine that this is working for salvation. Salvation is "without works"; but every person already saved, should be zealous of good works—not to be saved, but because he is saved. In addition to all this, salvation must be "gratuitously," "without a cause," "for naught." And "grace" means "everything for nothing to one who deserves nothing but judgment." The Lord Jesus Christ paid the price of salvation. He "gave Himself for our sins" (Gal. 1:4). The Son of God "loved me and He paid the price—His precious blood—there remains no price for us to pay."
